Distracted driving is a frequent cause of traffic crashes. Help us make the roads safer and focus your attention on driving.

Dublin Police Officers watch for some of the most common causes of traffic crashes, including:

- Distracted driving (driver inattention), which includes activities such as texting, reading, eating, cell phone use and any other activity that draws the driver's attention away from the road
- Speed
- Failure to control the vehicle
- Failure to yield
- Following too closely (tailgating).
